

Terms and Conditions Airline Bankruptcy Service

If you are holding a ticket on an airline which fails due to insolvency and has ceased flying, the money you have paid for your ticket(s) may be lost. The Airline Bankruptcy Service offers Service against that happening. Travix Travel UK Ltd* has taken out an insurance policy through International Passenger Service Limited with certain Underwriters at Liberty Mutual Insurance Europe SE under policy number B0429 BA 2100940 / 27134 CORP which provides Scheduled Airline Failure Insurance (SAFI) coverage for the benefit of our customers who have opted for the Airline Bankruptcy Service. Travix Travel UK Ltd is the only policyholder under this policy, and only Travix Travel UK Ltd has direct rights against Underwriters. These rights are held for the benefit of (and in trust for) our customers. If you have booked a flight through Online Travel Agency and the airline that you are due to travel with goes into liquidation prior to your outbound flight or, whilst you are away, prior to your return flight, we will make a claim under our policy for the cost of your flight(s). If our claim is successful, we will refund you (to the extent paid to us under the policy and up to a maximum of £ 2,000 (or maximum the similar amount in your local currency) the cost of your flight(s), or we will put the refund towards a new booking on an alternative flight, or flights, of a similar standard so that you may complete your journey. This document summarizes the terms and conditions of the benefits available under the policy; it does not give Airline Bankruptcy Service Customers direct rights under the policy.
